

Dr. Malti Nagar Ethnoarchaeology Award

Dr. Malti Nagar Ethnoarchaeology Award is given every year. The aim of this award is promotion of research in the field of Ethnoarchaeology. This award is given from a generous donation made by Late Dr. Malti Nagar who wished to encourage research in Ethnoarchaeology.

The award is given for an original research in South Asian Ethnoarchaeology to a scholar, irrespective of age or institutional status, who presents a paper at the Annual Conference of the Society and it is judged the best by a panel of jury consisting of two eminent scholars.

The scholars who wish to send their paper for this award shall submit two hard copies and a soft copy on CD, complete in all respects, to the General Secretary of the Society before the date announced for the year. The paper must accompany the declaration that the work is original (format is given below). The scholars shall personally present their papers during the Conference.

The award shall consist of a cash amount of Rupees One Thousand and a certificate. The paper selected for this award shall be published in Man and Environment in the earliest subsequent issue.
